ATTENTION PARENTS of THIRD GRADERS!!

Our Third Graders will continue taking state mandated tests through May

14. Please be sure that your student is IN ATTENDANCE, ON TIME, is well-rested, and has had a healthy breakfast before school during this testing window.

Student Occupations Day-On Friday May 21st students are asked to dress as “Who I Want To Be”. It will be a day for students to share with others what they would like to be in the future. Mrs. Kassner will be presenting Career Awareness programs in the classrooms, this is a great time to talk to your children about their hopes and dreams for the future. We look forward to this enlightening day. As always please follow student dress codes.

ALL LIBRARY BOOKS ARE DUE

THANK YOU PTO!

Thanks to our PTO, EVERY PLE student will have a book to read during “Turn Off The TV Week!” PTO donated $1,300! The books are high interest to all students and grade level appropriate. Pictured right – Third Graders -----! Also, a big thanks to Mrs. Bowman for ordering, sorting and delivering the books!
