READ ALL ABOUT IT!

Student Occupations Day-On Friday May 21st students are asked to dress as “Who I Want To Be”. It will be a day for students to share with others what they would like to be in the future. Mrs. Kassner will be presenting Career Awareness programs in the classrooms, this is a great time to talk to your children about their hopes and dreams for the future. We look forward to this enlightening day. As always please follow student dress codes.

SUMMER

FOOD DRIVE

When the school year ends, families still need help to feed their children. We are asking the Porter

Lakes, , community members, and local churches to help us in the endeavor to feed our children.

We are asking for “Kid Food” for the summertime. Items such as:

peanut butter	canned pasta	CEREAL
jelly	canned fruit	CEREAL
mac-n-cheese	pop tarts	CEREAL
soups.	pudding cups	CEREAL

We are also in need of hygiene items.

Monetary donations and ANY other food items are greatly appreciated!
